If money was to be taken from the treasury on the ignis of the colored people, get their proportion of it. That was the object of the amendment proposed by the senator for from lowa (Mr. Allison), but the bill would accomplish nothing as it astood, because the amount was too small. What was $7,000,000 the first year when distributed around among the states? At present, in some periods of the South, a school could not be kept open more than four months. The provision of the bill would add very little to that. Hence he (Logan) proposed to make the first year's appropriation $10,000,000 instead of $7,000,000, locreasing the amount expended of $7,000,000, locreasing the amount expended great to calling on the secretary of pasury to inform the senate how if any, the actual payments and year for five years and then decreasing it until in ten years the amount expended would be $135,000,000. This amount he thought would accomplish something. Headen to said fund from the existing laws can be carried to side in building school houses in sections of the country in which the local community might be too poor to stand all the expenses of building.

Mr. Blair was willing to accept Mr. Edmunds' substitute for Mr. Allison's amendment. It was agreed to, requiring each sense to the senate the name of the expenses of building.

Mr. Dolph moved to amend by providing that the bill should not take effect until two-thirds of the states should ac-
